The Abnormality

I'll have you know, there's nothing worse than abnormality
And you'll be surprised, look in my eyes - I wanna die

I'll have you know, there's nothing worse than malformation
For a fucking thousand years
My fading thoughts and twisted fears were caught in a dream catcher

I'll have you know, there's nothing worse than abnormality

Oh, I'm a little messed up!
We're screaming louder than our nightmares
Not of pain, not of pain
Out of fear, out of fear of the monsters
Of ourselves

I know it's going nowhere but downhill
A catalyst of imagery is all we need
Stomach butterflies coated in acid
A catalyst of imagery is all we need

Tell me I look beautiful
I am a normal girl
Tell me I look beautiful
Nothing's wrong with my world
Tell me I look beautiful
I am a normal girl
Tell me I look beautiful
Nothing's wrong with my world

Oh, I'm a little messed up
I screamed out loud, "Oh, I'm a nightmare!"
Oh, there's no going back now
I screamed out loud, I screamed out loud

I'll have you know, there's nothing worse than abnormality
And you'll be surprised, look in my eyes - I wanna die

I'll have you know, there's nothing worse than malformation
For a fucking thousand years
My fading thoughts and twisted fears were caught in a dream catcher

Oh, I'm a little messed up!
I screamed out loud, "Oh, I'm a nightmare!"
On my hands, in my mouth, on my tongue, in your eyes
Look at me now, I've made a mess

Oh, I'm a little messed up!
We're screaming louder than our nightmares
Not of pain, not of pain
Out of fear, out of fear of the monsters we call ourselves
